

Blink and You'll Miss a Revolution

Cut Copy

Have you heard the latest re-invention in the street?
Take me on a journey with the rhythm in my feet
It takes me to the left and it takes me to the right
Posing as a savior if you follow 'cross the night

Hey, I know, there's some places that you like to go
Hey, that's why, you take your turn and dance in time

Blink and you'll miss a revolution

Baby baby, can't you see?
(Oh, take it from me)
(Oh, take it from me)
We're on a path to eternity
(Oh, take it from me)
(Oh, take it from me)

Oh the fashion prophets, they will tell you what to do
Take the same old formula and call it something new

Hey, I know, there's some places that you like to go
Hey, that's why, you take your turn and dance in time

Baby baby, can't you see?
(Oh, take it from me)
(Oh, take it from me)
We're on a path to eternity
(Oh, take it from me)
(Oh, take it from me)
Build me up and burn it down
(Oh, take it from me)
(Oh, take it from me)
And spread the ashes over my old town
