

Reach For The Sky

Cutting Crew

Reach for the sky babe
Make it to heaven
Before your dreams grow old
Reach for the sky babe
It's over your shoulder
Reach for your dawn's own light

I don't believe in miracles
But I do believe in fate
And I do believe it's calling your name
Don't depend on lucky breaks
If luck is on your side
It's just the joker playing in your game
You can see the chances coming
But you look the other way
At the risk of sounding helpless girl
That's where we went wrong...

Reach for the sky babe
Make it to heaven
Before your dreams grow old
No one's so blind girl
It's over your shoulder
Reach for your dawn's own light

Don't tell me you're not satisfied
Don't tell me you can't wait to find
A reason for the rocks upon your road
Educate your appetite
With a capital "A"
Learn to let me help you share the load
But you keep me at your distance
As the tears begin to show
So I really hope you make it girl
Before I go

Reach for the sky babe
Make it to heaven
Before your dreams grow old
No one's so blind girl
It's over your shoulder
Reach for your dawn's own light

(It's all up to you)
