Some things get started Some things get finished then fade away, But some of us made our own rules from the start A year in the wilderness We sat it out now we're home again And playin'.... Into the den with the lions Too many good friends I lost They say it's a price you pay So don't try to force my hand I can't give any more. We'll cut every corner to cross every border Hello again! Play... Into the den with the lions It's so good to be home Back into the den with the lions. Deep in my darkest of hours I find myself all alone I hear a voice and I look to the sky There was an eagle An eagle that's flying into the sun, (and he whispered) Play... Into the den with the lions It's so good to be home I'm falling -back into the den with the lions feels so good to be home...