

Me Myself & I

Cyclone Temple

Everytime you speak your insecurities shine
True signs of the weak or do they think I'm blind
I hear the things you say when you verbally crucify
It's you that drives each nail with every spineless lie

[Bridge]:

It's always been me for me and only me
Bitterness and I go way back
Some find comfort in others' misery
Heaven't you heard, never bite the hand that feeds

I'll never turn my back on me
Because I know that I'm on my side
I'll be me until the end. Why can't they see
That all I've got is me, myself, and I

[Chorus]:

Me, myself and
Me, myself and
Me, myself and I
Me, myself and
Me, myself and
Me, myself and I

Hearing the laughter behind my back
Often makes me wonder
Try and raise above, but they're always pulling me down
So called friends, trying to pull me under

[Bridge]

I'll never turn my back on me
Because I know that I'm on my side
I'll be me until the end. Why can't they see
That all I've got is me, myself, and I

[Chorus]

Me, myself and
Me, myself and
Me, myself and I
Me, myself and
Me, myself and
Me, myself and I

No one to guide me 'cept the voices in my head
My eyes the window to my soul a solemn view of emptiness
Surrounded by parasites the kind that smile in your face
Telling you the things that they think you want to hear
When they only want to take your place

Has life forsaken me
Once blind, but now I see
Innocence stripped from me
The more you give, the more they feed
Never let them take away
The part of me that brings me peace
I'll never believe
I'll never trust

I'll never believe
