

Time Heals All

Cyclone Temple

Time waits for no one and I've got none to waste
Like an old-time remedy slowly ease my pain
And if the hour were my friend
I'd undo all I've done
If the minute hand could understand
Just how far I've come

[Bridge]:

When I die before I take my last breath
Take me away 'cause only time
Can cure me of my pain, my rage

Should've would've could've done
Am I just the only one
Sometimes it feels this way
Should've would've could've done
And all the things I meant to say
I meant to say

Take from me this precious thing
The thing that I need most
Makes the old and dying cherish it like gold
And if the hour hand were my friend
I would have no fear
What doesn't kill only makes you strong
And your hindsight very clear

[Bridge]

When I die before I take my last breath
Take me away 'cause only time
Can cure me of my pain, my rage

[Chorus]

Should've would've could've done
Am I just the only one
Sometimes it feels this way
Should've would've could've done
And all the things I meant to say
I meant to say

[Chorus]

Should've would've could've done
Am I just the only one
Sometimes it feels this way
Should've would've could've done
And all the things I meant to say
I meant to say
