

Martyr Man

D.I.

Martyr man
This martyr man in a recent time
He loved his life but a little too fast
Out of control in a wreckless way
So easily it can be taken all away
Martyr man will die for what he sees
Martyr man will fight for what he thinks
Martyr man what did you really see?
A strong message for which this man leaves
When will people understand?
That he was just a common man
Still the people ask me why
This man had to die
Martyr man...
There's a place I know where the wild ones go
Where people rot and always spite
Loss of a friend mind, body and soul
One man death could save another man's life
Martyr man...
