

No way out

D.O.A.

The line was made from the left to the right, what was left in the middle was nowhere in sight. You've had your chances, you've had your time. Don't waste the rest, get in line. Nobody knows, nobody cares that the world's goin' nowhere. Nobody knows, nobody cares, that we're all goin' nowhere. There's no way out. The part's for you, it'll fit in nicely, one size fits, all precisely. Now you're a man, a man for all ages any size fits all cages.
