

Alright

D-Side

It's gonna be alright
As every day goes by
It's easier
All you need is time
So come and Rest your mind
There's so much more to life
I see the bigger picture
I feel your troubles lifting
I'll be there to break your fall
When your feeling small

Chorus:

It's gonna be alright
Don't luck yourself away
It's gonna be alright
Coz everywhere loves goes
Somebody feels the Pain,
It'll be alright again

No words that I can say
Can drive your fears away
But I'm trying
Everyone knows best
But Really they know less
Of what your going through
I see the bigger picture
I feel your troubles lifting
I'll be there to break your fall
You can have it all

Chorus

If you're lost and alone at night
I can be your guiding light
If you're gonna run then run to me
Fly with the highs and share the lows
We'll always have each other to hold
To the end you can depend on me
