

Play Me The Song

D'Sound

Sun is setting fire to the sky tonight
Lucky are the ones who are not alone
Lovely boy walked me home from the bar tonight
I love his smile
When he plays the guitar
I'm saying;

Play me the song that your father taught you
Fill me with peace
Because I need it bad»
Oh, wonderful sunset strikes me deaf and blind
And I'm so relieved; there's a life after him

He was young and promised me the world, you know
But inside I knew it wouldn't be
Every goodbye is leading to a new hello
Now look at me - with mister T
I'm singing;

Play me the song that your father taught you
Fill me with peace
Because I need it bad»
Oh, wonderful sunset strikes me deaf and blind
And I'm so relieved; there's a life after.....

I still enjoy my sunsets
And sunrises too
Keep sitting here beside me and play
Play me through the night
Play me through the day
