

Spice Of Life

D'Sound

Where are the pleasures that I once thought I find?
And how did my life get a race against time?
I've got appointments and plains and trains to take And where are the flavours to please me, tease me?
I want that spice of life
-give me some flavour
I want that spice of life
-give me some collor

I'm feeling weary and everything looks grey You say Carpe Diem but I just can't seize my day Where is the method to add fun to my life?
Every morning's a virgin
-I have to wake up, break up
