

Tell Me Once Again

Da Buzz

Tell me once again, baby
This time I will listen
I will try to make things better
Tell me once again

It's getting late, and I'm afraid
To walk here in the rain
Always take the easy way out
So I'm not aware, how life could be
So far away, from giving you the best I can

Everytime you call my name
But I only seem to run away

Tell me once again, baby
This time I will listen
I will try to make things better
Tell me once again
Tell me once again
Cause baby you will miss me
I will try to make things better
Tell me once again

You wanna know, if I will stay
And I say Yes
This moment feels so good, I could cry
Tomorrow comes, then we will see
If everything is just the way it used to be

Tell me once again, baby
This time I will listen
I will try to make things better
Tell me once again
Tell me once again
Cause baby you will miss me
I will try to make things better
Tell me once again

If you can see who I am
Then I will love you all I can

Tell me once again, baby
This time I will listen
I'll try to make things better
Tell me once again
Tell me once again
Cause baby you will miss me
I'll try to make things better

Tell me once again, baby
I will try to make things better
Tell me once again, baby
I will try to make things better

Tell me once again, baby
This time I will listen
I will try to make things better

Tell me once again
Tell me once again
Cause baby you will miss me
I will try to make things better
Tell me once again
