

Behold the face of transfiguration
An extension of the harm from cast-out nations
and the fog surrounds
and confounds your vision

Time starts to bend
can't stop the masochist
time finds its target
it - can't survive

Who finds their nature to measure?
who finds their fall at the end of a blade?
who finds their fall at the end of the end of the blade

Behold the face of transfiguration

Bound tight chains surround the cast-out nations bound tight chains surround the place you live drown within your chains from false conceptions far from dying, these human laws cut inside your mind

Life sought through transfiguration fills your mouth full of falsehood misinformation
a life of limitations trapped within the confines of time

it - can't survive

Prison
from within forged ascent starts to falter
out of time
the years shall follow the tears of the dead
who thirst for life
