

You Won't Know Me

Dada

You won't know me
I'll have changed
You won't get me
I'll seem strange
You won't rule me
Not anymore
You won't know me
When you open the door
I've been gone for a long time
And there's a few things that I learned
That pain isn't good
And love isn't so bad
If I ever return
You won't know me
You won't know me
I won't be the same
You can't hold me
I can't be tamed
This time I'd say things
I could not before
Like I'm not your father
I'm not your whore
