

Never Go Back

Dag Nasty

sometimes it gets so cloudy it's hard to see everything gets distorted it's all a dream
all these smiling faces have lost their shine
I guess I'm getting older I just don't relate
never go back
I wish I could learn to never go back there's something wrong inside but I will never release my pride I wish I could learn to never go back I'm looking at pictures and I'm thinking of those times those times have changed and so have I
I stopped my dreaming
I know I can't go back
I started looking closer and I know what it's become I wish so bad it was the same how could it ever be the same?
never go back
never go back
I stopped my dreaming
I don't want to go back
