

Trying

Dag Nasty

you say it's the crossroads the place we meet all I'm seeing is a dead end street think of where you're going think of what you said I used my heart 'till it was broken now I'm trying to use my head we'll bide our time and there we' ll stay for you it's tomorrow for me it's yesterday
