

Sing It Again Rookie Biatch!

Daggermouth

As I stand here before your grave I know my life has changed
What else can I say, you were like a father to me
And I know I surely can't let go of this dream
Nothing will come between you and me

I promised you the day I left town
I won't let you down
I'm still fighting

I'll see you when I'm on tour
I'll lay an album on the ground
And you'll know why I moved away that summer
And I know I surely can't let go of this dream
Nothing will come between you and me

I promised you the day I left town
I won't let you down
I'm still fighting

I know you did not die in vain
I will pursue this dream again
