

Waves Of Doom

Dagoba

I've been drifting for all my life
There's nothing left I wanna live,
this ain't goodbye
Did you ever see a ship coming back
From the seven seas of Rhyes?
Sinking in the abyss with pride.

Time is coming to get drowned
I feel their caresses
Judgement comes!

Waves of doom
Forever stroke the sailors' tombs
Waves of doom
Fill my ultimate room
Waves of doom
Forever stroke the sailors' tombs
Waves of doom
Fill me in, bring the hellbourne...

I've met some golden hearted people
Taken for granted
But gold get throwed into the sea...
Now I'm not seeking for a treasure chest
Over and over again,
The quest is over...

Time is coming to get drowned
I feel their caresses
Judgement comes!

Waves of doom
Forever stroke the sailors' tombs
Waves of doom
Fill my ultimate room
Waves of doom
Forever stroke the sailors' tombs
Waves of doom
Fill me in, bring the hellbourne...
