

Blame The World

Daley

If somebody told me
The truth would have hurt me
I wouldn't place the blame
Cause nobody's perfect
But you played a cold game
And it left you lonely
Now you only have yourself to blame
For the fact that you blown it
Yeah Yeah

So guess the game is up now
And I was a fool to love ya
The consequences look now
All this hate for one another
So this is the last time I tried to make it work
You should think of it as a lesson learned

Hey
Betrayed your one and only
The tears fell now you're lonely
Now you wanna blame the world
Now you wanna blame the world

Build the walls, tear em down
It's your fault when you hit the ground
Now you wanna blame the world
Ohh
Now you wanna blame the world
Now you wanna blame the world

You never listen
And now you're all ears
Cause you know what you're missing
And nothing else compares

When the wheels were in motion
I gave you control
But to let this heart open
And this ship went cold

So guess the game is up now
And I was a fool to love ya
The consequences look now
All this hate for one another
So this is the last time I tried to make it work
Yeah this is the last time I put you first

Yes
Betrayed your one and only
The tears fell now you're lonely
Now you wanna blame the world
Now you wanna blame the world

Build the walls, tear em down
It's your fault when you hit the ground
Now you wanna blame the world
Ohh

Now you wanna blame the world
Now you wanna blame the world

Blame it on the struggle
Blame it on the stride (stride)
Blame it on the time we wasted waiting for a better life
Blame it on the love lost (lost)
But don't blame it on me, no no
Blame it on the people
That we just could not be

Ohh

Betrayed your one and only
The tears fell now you're lonely (now you're lonely)
Now you wanna blame the world
Now you wanna blame the world (blame the world)

Build the walls, tear em down
It's your fault when you hit the ground (hit the ground)
Now you wanna blame the world
Ohh
Now you wanna blame the world
Now you wanna blame the world

Now you wanna blame the world
Now you wanna blame the world
Now you wanna blame the world
