Good News

Daley

I want to take a leap of faith, escape it all, but it
Seems like there's no relief whichever way I fall, no

And it's more than I can take
Can somebody show me
How I'm supposed to feel, yeah
Cause I'm looking for the light
But there's no silver line
In the headlines that I'm reading

So somebody stop, stop
Give me the good news
Tell me it's alright
Somebody stop, stop
Give me the good news
Say it again

There's something missing in this world of you and I
And we won't find it until we open our eyes, open our eyes, our eyes

And we all want the same
Love without the pain
Truth without the blame, blame, blame
But we're stuck inside the storm
Dying to be reborn
Waiting for a change, oh

So somebody stop, stop
Give me the good news
Tell me it's alright
Somebody stop, stop
Give me the good news
Say it again

I need a minute to think, need peace of mind
Will it ever be simple? Oh, no... oh, no...

So somebody stop, stop
Give me the good news
Tell me it's alright
Stop, ohh, ohh
Somebody stop, somebody, somebody
Give me the good news, ooh

So somebody stop, stop
Give me the good news
Tell me it's alright
Somebody stop, stop
Give me the good news
Say it again

I need a minute to think, need peace of mind
Will it ever be simple? Oh, no... oh, no...

So somebody stop, stop
Give me the good news
Tell me it's alright, alright
