

True

Daley

I may not have what you need
But I could get it for you
It may not be all you expected
But what you get it will be true
And I won't try to impress you
'Cause you'll see everything in the end
No I won't try to undress you
'Til there's no doubt that I'm a friend

We're only here for one minute
Just a drop in oceans blue
So in my time while I'm here
I wanna spend it being true
I wanna spend it being true

So, lift your eyes up from the wheel
Take some time to catch that view
Before it passes you by now
'Cause moments lost you can't undo
Show me only your soul
Shed your layers not your tears
It's in our hearts to evolve
But we don't have a billion years

'Cause we're only here for one minute
We're a drop in oceans blue
So in my time while I'm here

I wanna spend it being true
I wanna spend it being true
Spend it being true
To this moment, be devoted

'Cause we're only here for one minute
So in my time while I'm here
I wanna spend it (I wanna spend it)
I wanna spend it (I wanna spend it)
I wanna spend it, spend it being
