

The Sleeping Sickness

Dallas Green

And I awoke
Only to find my arms were empty
Through this night it seems that you were with me
And now are not what my dreams meant to they're be
And I'm alone, alone,
And I am alone, alone,
And I am alone, alone,
And I am alone, alone

I'm afraid of sleeping cause of the way you haunt me
And I know you can make me fall apart so softly
And now you turn away so easily
And leave me all alone,
And leave me all alone,
And leave me all alone
