

Love li Love

Damage

I love II love
I love II love you
Nobody can change my mind
Your one if a kind
I love II love
I love II love you

No one loves me better it's true
Was not so long ago
That I was all alone
I had so much doubt in me

I had so many dreams
But fear got the best of me
Then came you to set me free... rise

So more than you no your the one
Who really really changed my life
Now whether I win or lose
I will never be afraid to try, that's why

I love II love
I love II love you
Nobody can change my mind
Your one of a kind
I love II love
I love II love you

No one loves me better it's true
You taught me how to dream
That no goals beyond my reach so now I reach for the sky
Love me with honesty

Showed me what the word should mean
Now your all I need to get by... rise

So more than you know your the one
Who really really changed my life
Now whether I win or lose
I will never be afraid to try, that's why
