

Independent

Damien Jurado

Can I ask a question? Were we meant to be?
Face the wrong direction, turn around to see
You'll see it's me and I don't wanna play these games
Do you know I know? You know it's not the same

I don't need you anymore
I'm independent, there's nothing to say
I don't need you anymore now
I'm independent, don't you walk away

Can I ask a question? Were we meant to be?
Face the wrong direction, don't say you don't need me
I know you do, you do when you call to me
I know you do, you do when you call to me

I don't need you anymore
I'm independent, there's nothing to say
I don't need you anymore now
I'm independent, there's nothing to say

I'm independent, there's nothing to say
I'm independent, there's nothing to say
I'm independent, don't you walk away
I'm independent, don't you walk away
