

All I Want Is You

Damien Leith

If I told you that I want nothing more,
All those dreams of riches I'd abandon on the floor,
Then would you see, lying here with me,
That all I want is you.
Is you.

If I kissed your lips and promised eternally,
What place steals your heart becomes a home for me,
The would you see, lying here with me,
That all I want is you.
Is you.

I can't keep it locked inside,
These feelings I can't hide,

IF I lost you then I would surely die,
Now can you see, how it steals the words from me,
And all I want is,
All I need is,
All I want is you.
Is you.
Is you
