

Shine Like The Sun

Damien Leith

Where do we start
When the lights gone out
When the passion a flown
Where do we start?

Whats left to say
When our tongues are tired
When the words that lied
Still linger on

When your defenses come down
Then I see you still shine like the sun
Brighter than anyone
Yeah you shine like the sun
Youre still the only one

When will we sing?
When will we laugh?
Have we left space
For second tries
Is this the end?
Is this a close?

Whats left behind
Are jaded lines

When your defenses come down
Then I see you still shine like the sun
Brighter than anyone
Yeah you shine like the sun
Youre still the only one

Dont, please dont stay
That this time is time best spent being alone

When your defenses come down
Then I see you still shine like the sun
Brighter than anyone
Yeah you shine like the sun
You're still the only one
Brighter than anyone
Yeah you shine like the sun
You're still the only one
