

To Get To You

Damien Leith

I don't know what to say
To make you happy
When everything is passed
Is left to nothing
All the pieces that you bring
A lie is stranded

I'm chasing down the highway
I'm lying a runaway
My life is going no where
Trying to get to you
God only knows that
I've been here once before
But im gonna get to you

I don't know what to do
To make you want me
Coz nothing is breaking though
The place your hiding
All the colours that you bring
Are turning red

I can make you understand
That living without you
I can make you understand
(whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa)

I'm chasing down the highway
I'm lying a runaway
My life is going no where
Trying to get to you
I'll never know what my life has installed
God only knows that
I've been here once before
But im gonna get to you

Im gonna get to you
