

Real Desire

Dan Auerbach

I know that you're wanted but every little thing talks take your pick and maybe they'll serve you, yeah but you, you will put them down talk, but never listen so how you wanna play your game try to step on me baby oh, and I will, I will do the same because you want to set the world on fire little men, we'll never do made you think i'd be a desire, oh darling oh I, I see right through Clouded skies have lifted and voices ring out from the wire if you'll say you never meant to hurt me, no oh you would be a liar

and a little man will never do
made you think I'd be a desire, oh darling you know I see right through
