

Shine on Me

Dan Auerbach

You only got a couple miles to go
If you're tryin' to drive me insane
I saw you crack a smile about a week ago
In the middle of the pourin' rain

So I climbed the cliffs of Dover
To go dry out in the sun
Now I'm like a four leaf clover
'Cause I hide from everyone

Shine on me
Shine on me
Shine on me
Shine on me

When I get up I gotta get me a plan to Do whatever I can I suppose
I'm already working for my Uncle Sam
You know he's got me countin' Cheerios

No more crying on my shoulder
I'm allergic to the tears
It's trying for this soldier
To pretend for all these years

Shine on me
Shine on me
Shine on me
Shine on me

I gotta keep my Ray-Bans on
So my eyes won't burn
While they shed new light upon
My number one concern

Shine on me
Shine on me
Shine on me
Shine on me
Shine on me
Shine on me
Shine on me
Shine on me
Shine on me
Shine on me
Shine on me
Shine on me
