You moved here from another town, your mother said she let you down Your father's ran away to sea and left you here to live by me Maybe I should ring, maybe I should call you my girl Baby come my way, baby come my way, come my way I never thought your family would, but now you're walking throu gh my neighbourhood Tired of walking streets alone, you don't know where to call yo ur home Well maybe I should call on you, I'll let you do what you want to do Escape for a little while, and we can walk 'cause I like your s tyle Maybe I should ring, maybe I should call you my girl Baby come my way, baby come my way, come my way Baby come my way, baby come my way, come my way I never thought I'd catch your eye, but now it seems you never want to leave my side Your family wants you back from me, but I had your promise that you'd never want to leave So maybe

Maybe I should ring, maybe I should call you my girl Baby come my way, baby come my way, come my way Maybe I should ring, maybe I should call you my girl Baby come my way, baby come my way, come my way Baby come my way, baby come my way, come my way Baby come my way, baby come my way, come my way Baby come my way, baby come my way, come my way
