

Healing Power Of Love

Dan Hill

Do you believe in the healing power of love, or is it just a fantasy
Do you believe in the power from above, I feel it between you and me
And I don't have to look in your eyes to know
There's something going on here that's out of our control
This is happening too fast for us to fight

There's a healing power deep in all of us
In the darkest hour we can still rise up
There's a new horizon between you and me
When you slip your hand in mine I feel the rush
Of the healing power of love

And we got nothing but love to pull us through, love and compassion
But in this desperation world nothing else will do, we can make it happen
And you don't have to say a word, I understand
When you lay down your love lasts forever
You will always be my woman and I will be your man

There's a healing power deep in all of us
In the darkest hour we can still rise up
There's a new horizon between you and me
When you slip your hand in mine I feel the rush
Of the healing power of love

Deep in the night, when we're so alone,
I swear I feel the power that's greater than our own
And how a love unfolds
As we tumble through the darkness to the great unknown

There's a healing power deep in all of us
In the darkest hour we can still rise up
There's a new horizon between you and me
When you slip your hand in mine, I feel the rush
Of the healing power of love

There's a healing power it's so deep in us
In the darkest hour there's a healing power of love
There's a healing power, I can feel it now
In the darkest hour we can still rise up
There's a healing power deep in all of us
