

Lullaby

Dan Seals

Sleep lay me down and hold me closely in your arms
And I will close my eyes Please promise me
That when I wake up from my dreams
You'll be there by my side

Love if you'll say You won't slip away
Then I can go dreaming of forever more
But I won't rest until I know that you will be here
In the morning by my side
