

Question?

Dan Vertigo

Question?

I'm in love with you
but I still've got a question,
tell me girl, is it possible
to love without a question?

But when I look into your eyes
I notice your smile,
I know another sunrise comes.

I'm in love with you
but I still've got a question,
tell me girl, is it possible
to love without a question?

But when I look into your eyes
I notice your smile,
I know another sunrise comes.

I'm so horny,
horny horny horny,
I wish you were so too,
I'll go to party,
to get a new girlie,
but in my heart is you.

I'm in love with you
but I still've got a question,
tell me girl, is it possible
to love without a question?

But when I look into your eyes
I notice your smile,
I know another sunrise comes,
I know another sunrise comes,
I know another sunrise... comes!
