

Golden Girl

Dan Wilson

The golden girl, golden fire, golden eyes read my desire
I've wandered through the world so long
Looking for the golden girl

I watched her walk across the square
Through the gate I lost her there
Gonna see my golden girl again
Gonna see my golden girl someday, someday

I've been waiting a long time to find you
Out the windows of all my dreams
I've been hoping there's somebody like you
In the world for me

I'll be the sun burning in space
All to warm a golden face someday

I've been waiting a long time to find you
Out the windows of all my dreams
I've been hoping there's somebody like you
In the world for me

I think of her all the time
The rest is a blur but the dream that I'm
Gonna see my golden girl again
Gonna see my golden girl
Gonna see my golden girl again
Someday, Someday
