

Powder To The People

Dance Gavin Dance

You threw me away
Just like all the others
It's been seven days and not a single word

You threw me away
(And for you it's all the same, all the same)
Just like all the others
(And for you it's all the same, all the same)
It's been seven days
(And for you it's all the same, all the same)
And not a single word
(And for you it's all the same, all the same)

Make everything happen exactly just like our love
Just like the ones before, just like the ones before
I hope you know what you are doing to yourself, to yourself
I hope you know what you are doing

And for you it's all the same, all the same

(I see comfort; you see security)
(I see comfort; you see security)

You threw me away just like all the others
It's been seven days and not a single word
Who chooses to keep all these bohemian thoughts alive?
It's just the same, the same as yesterday
Don't wake me up if you have nothing to say
Who chooses to keep all these bohemian thoughts alive?

Make everything happen exactly just like our love
Just like the ones before, just like the ones before
I hope you know what you are doing to yourself, to yourself
I hope you know what you are doing

What are you but a yellow-purple zebra
Contacts so I can see clearer?
Write these words in stone, I'm a magnet;
Cause tension and retract it
Please ask me again cause I didn't hear it
Get settled in 'cause you can't be here yet
All partied out on strangers favors
How you act like my friend but we're only neighbors
Excuse me, pardon the eruption
I walk up, press all the buttons
I'll talk down, stress all the functions
I always gotta be startin' something
So, "powder to the people"
'Cause the fight for rights is equal
"Powder to the people"
'Cause the fight for rights is equal

And for you it's all the same, all the same
[x6]

You threw me away just like all the others
It's been seven days and not a single word

Who chooses to keep all these bohemian thoughts alive?
It's just the same, the same as yesterday
Don't wake me up if you have nothing to say
Who chooses to keep all these bohemian thoughts alive?

(Content with who we are)
(Driving our fast cars)
(Through thin lanes on long roads)
(So much to behold)
(Greatest country? Where you been)
(To form that opinion?)
(See it, believe it: celebrity leadership)
