Dance Hall Crashers

It began with a mistake,
I don't know what was at stake
I realize I was to blame, I just want things to be the same
I'll be the first to apologize and I know these things take time
I think of you and I see red even though you were alright in bed
It's not that we don't get along, it's just that you are always wrong at least you could pretend that I was right in the end Why won't you ever let this die, you can see how hard I've tried Please don't hold this over my head, lets's just say enough's been said
Enough is enough
I know I was to blame
I just want things to be the same
Just shut up and make it right

Well its's been a long long time and I've realized my crime
I wanna leave it up to you
But you never seem to come through Why don't you finish what you start before this whole thing falls apart
You know I'm beginning to think that you dorve me to drink
Not that I'm placing blame but you're giving me a bad name Why won't you eer let this die, you can see how hard I've tried
I guess its time to say,
Fuck Off I'm gone after today

Enough is enough
I know I was to blame
I just want things to be the same
Just shut up and make it right

I never thought this would be such a nightmare get over your bad self, I don't... I don't really care
I don't... I don't really care

Enough is enough
I know I was to blame
I just want things to be the same
Just shut up and make it right
