

Just Like That

Dance Hall Crashers

You've been quiet too long
Do you want company or to be left alone?
'Cause when your halo dissolves (halo dissolves)
You blow volcanic and your sweet little voice explodes
Flashes of rage, is this just a stage?
'Cause you can change from angel to devil

Well, is this just a phase?
Or is it something I'll have to get used to?
'Cause did you know there's a space (space in between)
The highs above and the depths to which you love
It's only ground, dirty and brown
But I'll keep you down, so you don't flip just like that

Oooh, just like that
Oooh, oooh, just like that
Oooh, oooh, just like that
Oooh, oooh, oooh

You know you look so divine
Almost forgotten the things you put me through
When you start to unwind (start to unwind)
Become Lucifer with your bad mood
Nothing I can do, comes out of the blue
It's time that you know that I can change too like that

Oooh, just like that
Oooh, oooh, just like that
Oooh, oooh, just like that
Oooh, oooh, oooh

Oooh, oooh, just like that
Oooh, oooh, just like that
Oooh, oooh, just like that
Oooh, oooh, just like that

Oooh, oooh, just like that
Oooh, oooh, just like that
Oooh, oooh, just like that
Oooh, oooh, oooh
