

Beautiful Regret

Danger Danger

I did it again, this shit never ends
I'm so god damn predictable
Cover girl face, trailer-park grace
Girl i swear this is criminal

Jaded and faded
I lost myself in you
It's what i always do

You love's like a rope around my neck
Every time we kiss the tighter it gets
You got me on my knees, i can barely breathe
You'll surely be the death of me girl
My beautiful regret

Daddy wasn't there, mommy never cared
Now you're your own worst enemy
So i got in your bed, now you're stuck in my head
Like a bitter sweet symphony

Falling, i'm crawling
Like a rat trapped in a cage
I'm a bloodstain on your stage

You love's like a rope around my neck
Every time we kiss the tighter it gets
You got me on my knees, i can barely breathe
You'll surely be the death of me yeah
My beautiful regret

You wear your demons on your sleeve
But your pretty face is all that anybody really sees
You're such a beautiful disease

Jaded and faded
I lost myself in you
It's what i always do

You love's like a rope around my neck
Every time we kiss the tighter it gets
You got me on my knees, i can barely breathe
You'll surely be the death of me yeah
My beautiful regret

You love's like a rope around my neck
Every time we kiss the tighter it gets
You got me on my knees, i can barely breathe
You'll surely be the death of me yeah
My beautiful regret
My beautiful regret
My beautiful regret
Beautiful regret
