

Don't Blame It On Love

Danger Danger

You thought you had everything that you wanted
but something was wrong from the moment this started I followed your lead
Your touch and your tease, yeah
But i've had enough girl your not fooling me
You got one too many tricks up your sleeve
Go on, blame it on me

Don't blame it on love
The tough gets going when the going gets tough sooner or later, i'll be calling your bluff Whoah, don't blame it on love

Caught in a wave of confusion and passion
You talk about love like it's out of fashion
No guilt and shame
it's all a game, yeah I'm more than a face baby i've got it made but you can forget it now thats enough i've had it tough

Don't blame it on love
The tough get going when the going gets tough Sooner or later i'd be calling your bluff Woah don't blame it on love

You thought you had everything that you wanted
but something was wrong from the moment this started