

Killin' Love

Danger Danger

Why does it always have to end this way?
Trapped in a room with nothing left to say
Thought we were bullet proof, so we closed our eyes
We couldn't see the truth until we lost the prize
And as the devil danced around our fragile hearts
In between the sheets he was tearing us apart

Killing love
That's what we doing every time we touch
We're killing love
Blood to blood
We made a promise but it's not enough
We're killing love

Now as we fade into the long goodnight
Call for the priest to give us our last rights
And say a prayer for us, absolve us of our sins
There'll be no resurrection this is where it ends
Don't need no tarot cards or rosaries
I'll tell you these broken hearts will forever rest in peace

Killing love
That's what we doing every time we touch
We're killing love
Blood to blood
We made a promise but it's not enough
We're killing love

Who's gonna save us from this heart break suicide?
Love is a bitter pill and tastes like cyanide

Killing love
That's what we doing every time we touch
We're killing love

Killing love

Killing love
That's what we doing every time we touch
We're killing love
Blood to blood
We made a promise but it's not enough
We're killing love

Killing love
That's what we doing every time we touch
We're killing love
One by one
Carving nails into the coffin until the day is done
