

Broken Man

Danger Radio

When it's convenient you walk through the door
With a laid back look on your face
And all the people that you choose to ignore
Will never run in your race

Honey, where you going?
No one else is going
And all the dice you're throwing
Every seed you're sowing
Are gonna take you to a special place

I had a feeling it would end up like this
I should've never closed my eyes when we kissed
I didn't notice you reached in with your hand
Ripped my heart and my soul out and left me a broken man

(I'm still breaking, breaking)
I'm still breaking, breaking
(A broken man)
(I'm still breaking, breaking)
(A broken man)
I'm still breaking, breaking

If you're the killer then I'm ready to die
Just remember me when I'm gone
If you're the Devil then I'm with you tonight
Won't even finish this song

Honey, where you going?
No one else is going
And all the dice you're throwing
Every seed you're sowing
Are gonna take you to a special place

I had a feeling it would end up like this
I should've never closed my eyes when we kissed
I didn't notice you reached in with your hand
Ripped my heart and my soul out and left me a broken man

(I'm still breaking, breaking)
(A broken man)
I'm still breaking, breaking
(A broken man)
(I'm still breaking, breaking)
(A broken man)
I'm still breaking, breaking

All my innocence has been taken
I think I'm just about to lose this race
All my senses have been awaken
Killa girlilla with a pretty face
I hope you're happy in your special place

I had a feeling it would end up like this
I should've never closed my eyes when we kissed
I didn't notice you reached in with your hand
Ripped my heart and my soul out and left me a broken man

I had a feeling it would end up like this
I should've never closed my eyes when we kissed
I didn't notice you reached in with your hand
Ripped my heart and my soul out and left me a broken man

(I'm still breaking, breaking)
(A broken man)
I'm still breaking, breaking
(A broken man)
(I'm still breaking, breaking)
(A broken man)
I'm still breaking, breaking, yeah
(I'm still breaking, breaking)
(A broken man)
I'm still breaking, breaking
(A broken man)
(I'm still breaking, breaking)
(A broken man)
I'm still breaking, breaking

I had a feeling it would end up like this
(A broken man)
I should've never closed my eyes when we kissed...
