

Restore the Feeling

Daniel Caesar

See, I could write down what I see
I'm hanging by the thread of my misery
I'm feeling like there's nothing out there for me
Still waiting on a feeling, get away from me

I'm tryna restore the feeling
God damn, wouldn't it be nice?
You know that my mind is willing
Can't seem to get this right

I'm tryna restore the feeling
God damn, wouldn't it be nice?
You know that my mind is willing
I just got to get my body right
Won't you sing it now

Hey, hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, hey, hey

Right now I can't seem to fight the feelings
Demons here, waitin' on me
I'm hanging by my pride
My energy is draining slowly
Please don't cry so deep

Aye, miss me with that
"How you been, how you doin'?"
In Paris talkin' fluent
Like they know my influence
Took a lot of talent to make thousands outta twenties
That's exactly what I'm doin'
I got Danny Caesar coin
Now I'm peeling back Backwoods, I guess I'm back to work
Make a mil off a classic verse
Will I make a mil or a classic first?

Restore that feeling

I'm tryna restore the feeling
God damn, wouldn't it be nice
You know that my mind is willing
Can't seem to get this right

I'm tryna restore the feeling
God damn, wouldn't it be nice?
You know that my mind is willing
I just gotta get my body right

Gonna restore that feeling

Restore
Feel
My mind is reeling
Gonna restore that feeling

Feeling, feel

I can feel it
Gonna restore that feeling
