

Whom Do You Love

Daniel Lavoie

Your English heart on a Gypsy knee
Who do you love? Who do you love?
Dreaming of passion in the third degree
Who do you love? Is it me?

Enigmatic answers and the distant smile
Who do you love? Who do you love?
Somewhere in your heart did you loose my fire?
Who do you love? Is it me?

You say all right but I feel your intentions waver
Who do you love? Who do you love?
And then all night are you doing me a favour?
Who do you love? Who do you love?
And nothing has changed, I can hear you say
Who do you love? Who do you love?
Shadows in your eyes as you turn away
Who do you love? Is it me?

You say all right, but I feel your intentions waver
Who do you love? Who do you love?
And then all night are you doing me a favour?
Who do you love? Who do you love?
And nothing has changed, I can hear you say
Who do you love? Who do you love?
Shadows in your eyes as you turn away
Who do you love? Is it me?
