

Water and a Flame

Daniel Merriweather

Seven days has gone so fast
I really thought the pain would pass
Its been nearly an hour since I thought of you cause you're not answering the phone I'd settle for a busy tone at least by that I know, that you're okay
A girl like you ain't meant to go away

And now you're gone, there's nothing else I want
And now that its over, there's nothing else I want
What have I done, looks I was wrong
Is everything really meant to change?
I guess were like water and a flame

I'm tired of this empty house
I need a drink to get me out a couple more till I forget your name
I saw a boy that looked like you
I didn't quite know what to do
I took a power of will to break my stare
I realized what I wanted wasn't there

And now you're gone, there's nothing else I want
And now that its over, there's nothing else I want
What have I done, looks like I was wrong
Is everything really meant to change?
I guess were like water and a flame

If you see me coming
I look away, I look away
And if your minds made up
I look away, I will look away
If you worry about..
I'm ok, I'm ok, yes I am
All this sorrow and this pain is gonna go away

And now you're gone, there's nothing else I want
And now that its over, there's nothing else I want
What have I done, looks I was wrong
Is everything really meant to change?
I guess were like water and a flame
Water and a flame
