

Am I Still the One?

Daniel Powter

I don't get much from here
I don't give them much thought I crumble on the crashing may you still around I don't like my reflection
I don't like what I see I'm scared of my shadow
You cast this doubt on me
But am I still the one?
Am I still the one?
Am I still the one?

I was still there in the shadow
just to understand your pain
but when I need it
till they rush to left in the other way I wanted to have comfort
the moment when we have begun
I love you though you love to listen I'm still the one

You call me through the windows
You call them through the floor
You sent these flyers to find me
Now they're kicking down my door
Am I still the one?
Am I still the one?
Am I still the one?

I was still there in the shadow
just to understand your pain
but when I need it
till they rush to left in the other way
there's something I've got emptiness all be settled down I know you wanna me to be with I'm still the one

So now would you leave angel?
you got me all the wrong

tell me that you'll never leave me again,
now you're sorry 'uhuh uh'
tell me that you'll never leave me again,
now you're sorry 'uhuh uh oh-huh-yo'
tell me that you'll never leave me again,
'all these lovers'
sorry 'oh-huh-yo'
tell me that you'll never leave me again,
'all these lovers'
sorry 'oh-huh-yo'
tell me that you'll never leave me again,
'all these lovers'
sorry 'oh-huh-yo'
tell me that you'll never leave me again,
'all these lovers'
