

Selfish

Daniel Powter

Some say that love is blind
Some say you almost lose your mind
You got under my skin
The moment you walked in

And no matter how hard I try
Rejection kept me occupied
But now I can't contain
The way that I behave

When I see your face
I won't compromise
You belong to me
It's you and I
It's no wonder

I'm selfish
Maybe I want to lose control
Maybe I'm better off this way
It gets harder every day

I'm selfish
Maybe I want to lose control
Maybe it's wrong and I can't tell
It's you or no one else

I knew I'd get you in the end
It wasn't how but only when
And then I'll win my prize
And I'll be satisfied

When I see your face
I won't compromise
You belong to me
It's you and I
It's no wonder

Cause I'm selfish
Maybe I want to lose control
Maybe I'm better off this way
It gets harder every day

I'm selfish
Maybe I want to lose control
Maybe it's wrong and I can't tell
It's you or no one else

Cause in a perfect world
It's a perfect dream
I'll never be afraid
I'll never be alone
Cause it's you I'm sure
I'm good for

Why maybe I'm selfish
And I can't help but lose control

And I won't suffer every day

Now I'm selfish
Maybe I want to lose control
Maybe it's wrong and I can't tell

Maybe I'm selfish
It's you or no one else
