

High

Daniel Schuhmacher

Time to disappear
Nobody knows
Where we're going to
When the feeling grows
Indecision makes me go crazy
See the doubts are fading away
Disconnect your fears
With your heart exposed
I thrill your mind as we run away
To a place to be discovered

Love will take you high
Love will take you high
Reinventing the game
Leaving all we became
Just release
And receive
Love will take you high
Love will take you high
Hold on for your life
No way back, we'll arrive
No receive
Just release

Slidely out of reach
Nothing's what it seems
I take you to a world
Far beyond your dreams
Accelleration here on the inside
Adrenaline is going to stay
As we cross the line
Leading to extremes

I thrill your mind as we run away
To a place to be discovered
Love will take you high
Love will take you high
Reinventing the king
Leaving all we became
Just release
And receive
Love will take you high
Love will take you high
Hold on for your life
No way back, we'll arrive
No receive
Just release
