

Honestly

Daniel Schuhmacher

Honestly...

Where do you go, when there's nothing like when it begun
Where do you go, when you know that you are just too young
How do you know who's gonna tell you what is right or wrong?
It's the hardest way to know who leads you on
How do I know when I fall in everlasting love
How do I know the life that I'm still dreaming of Where should I go if you don't want me right next to you Heaven high above or hell below without you...

baby (lalalalalalala) honestly I need your love...
(lalalalalalala) honestly you're from above
so mostly what i need is you
I swear I'll never be untrue
When you're (lalalalalalala lalalala)
Loving me... Honestly...

Now you should know you're the one that I'm depending on
And you should know I will go insane when you are gone
I tell you so, you're the light for me, just everything
Baby, you are such the sweetest thing - don't you know?

baby (lalalalalalala) honestly I need your love...
(lalalalalalala) honestly you're from above
so mostly what I need is you
I swear I'll never be untrue
When you're (lalalalalalala lalalala)
Loving me... Honestly!

And I will love you tenderly!
I swear that to you honestly
When you're (lalalalalalala lalalala)
Loving me... Loving me...
Honestly... Honestly...
