

Lay Back Down

Danielle Peck

Lay back down here with me honey
Who needs the money from workin' all day
Life is short, time is a runnin'
Let's make a little lovin' 'fore it slips away

Lay back down, babe why don't you kiss me
You know you're gonna miss me when you're gone
Here and now is all that really matters
Wouldn't you rather be where you belong

Hold me close
No, I'm not ready to let you go
All I want is you right now
Blame it on your kiss
It keeps leaving me like this
No I can't get enough of your sweet, sweet love
Baby lay back down

Lay back down the fire's still burning
The world can keep on turning
For another day
Tomorrow will be there
No need to hurry let's take our time no worry
It'll be ok

Baby lay back down
You know it's still early
Come on back to bed
You know what I want
