

Somebody For You

Danielle Peck

You always give yourself so freely
And never ask for anything in return
Yeah you make loving you so easy
And make it so hard to know when you hurt

For everyone around you
There's not one thing you wouldn't do
I want to be that somebody for you

When the rain starts fallin'
On your parade
And when you have to say a prayer
Just to get through another day
When there's no one there beside you
To wipe those tears from your face
Or to pull you through
I want to be
I want to be that somebody for you

Your faith and innocence renew me
Yeah you give me strength and peace of mind
No I can't hide you see right through me
You won't let me leave my dreams behind

You've always been the sun a shinin'
In my sky of blue
I want to be that somebody for you

When the rain starts fallin'
On your parade
And when you have to say a prayer
Just to get through another day
When there's no one there beside you
To wipe those tears from your face
Or to pull you through
I want to be
I want to be that somebody for you

For everyone around you
There's not a thing I wouldn't do
You'll always be the sun a shinin'
In a sky of blue

When there's no one there beside you
To wipe the tears from your face
And pull you through
I want to be
I want to be that somebody for you
