

Pieces

Danity Kane

It's midnight
I'm finally out
My whole world, with my girls
Made some friends, getting it in Just when a call comes through
It's a five account, 4 cars, 3 cribs
2 dogs and a one-year
Since the last time I spoke to you

Keep thinking about the last time
Do I say what's on my mind
Gave everything in my soul
Now I'm onto another life
And I promised that I wouldn't let myself get caught up in a love so blind
Next time I'll do better

Do I run, do I stay
Throw this whole shit away
Is it okay if I give you my heart again
Don't break it to pieces
(no, don't do it. don't do it)
I'm on the edge of what I feel
Do I believe is all this real
You know the deal if I give you my heart again
Don't break it to pieces
(don't do it no)

Got me thinking about you
Been so alone without you
I remember when I couldn't be without you Sleep without you, I been good, so good, that I haven't thought about you
Now you brought it back, I don't wanna it back
Yeah I do, I'm confused
This shit ain't cool

Keep thinking about the last time
Do I say what's on my mind
Gave everything in my soul
Now I'm onto another light
And I promised I wouldn't let myself
get caught up in a love so blind
Next time I'll do better

Do I run, do I stay
Is it okay if I give you my heart again
Don't break it to pieces
I'm on the edge of what I feel
You know the deal if I give you my heart again

I been on that 50 karat
I blew all my tears away
See on the runaway shit

I been on game dear
I been on that 50 karat
I blew all my tears away
Tears away, tears away

Do I run, do I stay
Is it okay if I give you my heart again
I'm on the edge of what I feel
You know the deal if I give you my heart again
